Easy Living

Stuck on an island far away with a pen in my hand and plenty to say.
Nothing to do just sitting here sipping on an ice cold beer.
Seen the sights and I've done the tours, I'll hit the bar before they close the doors.

Sand is fine the waters warm just sat on the beach until the dawn.
Nothing to do just sitting there sipping on my ice cold beer,
Seen the sights and I've done the tours, I'll hit the bar before they close the doors.
